American Vessel Dives 219 Feet on Her Trial Trip.

The S-3, America's largest submarine, put in yesterday at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, having finished her trial run in first class condition.

The boat is 321 feet long, and carries 38,000 gallons of fuel oil, which makes its cruising radius 10,000 miles. The displacement is 550 tons. On the recent trial, the S-3 submerged to a depth of 219 feet. Her speed under water is about thirteen knots and on the surface eighteen knots an hour.

CARNEGIE FUNERAL SIMPLE CEREMONY; ONLY 60 PRESENT

Men Who Helped Ironmaster Amass Fortune Attend—Body Taken to Sleepy Hollow.

LENOX, Mass., Aug. 14.—The funeral of Andrew Carnegie was held at Shadow Brook, his summer home in the Berkshires, to-day. There was no eulogy and there were no pallbearers. The service was as simple as were the Tablets and Tablets of the man in life. Fully one-half of the 50 persons present were members of the household. The others were intimates of the family.

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion and complexion beautifier at very, very small cost. Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.—Adv.

The ritual of the Presbyterian Church was used by the officiating clergyman, Dr. William Pierson Merrill of the Brick Presbyterian Church, Fifth Avenue, New York, which the Carnegies attended and of which Mrs. Carnegie and her daughter, Mrs. Roswell Miller, are members. The day upon which his daughter, Margaret, united with this church was declared by Mr. Carnegie to be the "happiest day of his life."

A mixed quartet from the church sang "O Love, That Will Not Let Me Go," "He Leadeth Me" and "Crossing the Bar," hymns which were the favorites of the former ironmaster.

Dr. Merrill was assisted by the Rev. Benson N. Wyman, pastor of the Lenox Congregational Church, where Mrs. Carnegie frequently worshipped during the summer months.

At the conclusion of the service, which occupied barely twenty minutes, the body, accompanied by most of the party, was removed in a motor car to Hillsdale, N. Y., where a funeral coach was in waiting. This car was attached to the regular train of the New York Central Railroad for Tarrytown. Thence the body was to be taken by automobile to Sleepy Hollow for interment in a lot chosen by Mr. Carnegie some years ago.

Mrs. Carnegie will not return to Shadow Brook, it was said at the Carnegie residence, but will go to New York City.

The service at Shadow Brook was held in the great reception room on the first floor at the east end of the mansion overlooking Lake Mankesago. One of the beauty spots of the wonderful estate. The body reposed in a severely plain casket, which was all but hidden in a wealth of flowers. A small name plate of silver bore only the inscription, "Andrew Carnegie, born at Dunfermline, Scotland, Nov. 25, 1835; died at Lenox, Mass., Aug. 11, 1919."

Among those who attended the service were some of the men who had helped Mr. Carnegie to make his millions and others who had helped him distribute the major part of those millions. They included Charles M. Schwab, Robert A. Franks, business adviser of the ironmaster for many years; treasurer of the Carnegie Corporation and of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching; and the Rev. Frederick H. Lynch, who represented the Carnegie Foundation during the Peace Conference at Paris.

A death mask of Mr. Carnegie was said to have been taken last night by Augustus Lukeman of New York, but members of the household declined to give any information on the matter.

Luxemburg Riots Over Size of "Food Bonus."

PARIS, Aug. 14.—As a protest against the size of the bonus granted by the Luxemburg Parliament to reimburse the people for the high cost of living, 20,000 workmen of that country assaulted the Assembly chamber, smashed the furniture and imprisoned the entire Parliament. The Parliament had granted $60 per capita to the population for "food subsidy," but the people demanded $90.
